

This is all the parts. The hook holders and pressure points are placed in key areas around the bolt. They are then locked into the belt. The hooks are placed in the hook holders. Once adjusted the cable tie which is placed inbetween the belt and flexible tube. Once everything is in place the cable tie is tightened and the parts are secured around the bolt. Once everything is in place it is time to turn the hooks and loosen the bolt.

Constructor's Corner

It's all about IDEAS

www.constructorscorner.com

